

Bryan L. Greer is Minister of Music at Shady Grove United Methodist Church in Mechanicsville, Virginia where he conducts the Chancel Choir, The Grove Singers, Cappella, the Shady Grove Brass, and administrates a multifaceted music ministry. A Nebraska native, his musical leadership has ranged from leading church music ministries of all sizes, to volunteer choral and orchestral ensembles, to academic music of the highest caliber. At home on both sides of the podium, Bryan has sung with the Omaha Symphony, Lincoln Symphony, the Berkshire Choral Festival, Omaha Chamber Singers, Clarion Chamber Choral, and other festival and semi-professional choral organizations. He has attended conducting workshops with internationally renowned conductors Anne Howard Jones, Andre Thomas, Dennis Keene, Paul Salamunovich, and Edward Polochick. Also, Bryan has participated in specialized small ensemble workshops with the Kings Singers, Chanticleer, and Western Wind. Additionally, Bryan is a published composer with Hinshaw Music.

Bryan holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Nebraska Wesleyan University, and a Master of Music degree in choral conducting from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln. He maintains active memberships with the American Choral Directors Association, National Music Educators Association, and the Fellowship of United Methodists in Music and Worship Arts.

Most importantly, Bryan is husband to Nichole and father to Morgan Elizabeth. In his spare time, he prefers to read, visit local historic sites and restaurants, and follows Nebraska football religiously.
