

Julie Martin

Julie Martin has been a member of Shady Grove UMC ever since joining with her confirmation class in 1988. Her singing career began in the Cherub Choir and she continued to participate in nearly every church and handbell choir that Shady Grove had to offer! Julie is also an accomplished pianist who served as the interim organist for the church in 1997-1999. She holds a degree in elementary education and is a former Hanover County teacher. Currently, Julie is a stay-at-home mom who resides with her husband and two young children.
